21ST CENTURY HORMONE ADVANCEMENTS

The Practitioner's Comprehensive Guide to Bioidentical Hormones through Menopause & Andropause

COURSE DESCRIPTION

"21st Century Hormone Advancements: The Practitioner's Comprehensive Guide to Bioidentical Hormones through Menopause & Andropause" symposium is designed to provide the most comprehensive overview of the most popular approaches to replace and restore hormones in men and women, showcasing in-depth strategies on how to optimize those hormones through low dose static replacement, hormone pellet implants, and rhythmically dosed physiologic restoration.

Attendees will also obtain up-to-date knowledge in hormone treatment strategies as they relate to PCOS, breast cancer, prostate cancer, sleep and stress issues, transgender reassignment advances, sexual dysfunction, heart disease, BPH and lower urinary tract symptoms, and infertility.

Our target audience is designed for physician's, nurses, pharmacists, physician's assistants, and other health care providers involved with the support of patient's utilizing hormones.
